Steamers Unable to Carry Big Crowd Back-Rains Do Much Damage to Crops.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., August 17.—
The County Democratic Committee for Caroline, has declared Mr. E. R. Cogare being held this week at Mt. Moriah and Peterville Baptist Churches. Dr. Derleux is assisting Dr. Bagby, the pastor at Mt. Moriah, and Rev. Mr. McFarland, of Farmville, is assisting Rev. Mr. Putney at Peterville. These meetings are being well attended, considering the inclement weather.

During the last ten days this section has been visited by frequent and savere till, the present clerk of courts of that county, the Democratic nominee for the position in the next general election in November, no one having come out left at the Beach and could not leave until the next day.

Judge J. E. Mason adjourned Caroline County Court at ten o'clock Monday night. The court is usually in session several days, but Judge Mason was unwell and had to return to his home in King George county.

The numerous rains for the past month have done great damage to the corn and tobacco crops of Caroline county. The growth of corn throughout this section is very heavy. The yield of fodder will be immense, but many think the ears, will not be developed well. Tobacco is one of the principle crops, of Caroline, and the farmers will seriously feel may shortage in that product. They still have a quantity of last year's crop, which they are shinning out to market as rapidly as possible and securing good price for it.

The scholars and teachers of the Sun day School of St. Mary's Catholic Church went in vehicles yesterday to histori-Salem Church, in Spotsylvania county Salem Church. In Spotsvivania county, about four miles from this city, where one of the flercest battles of the Civil War was fought, and spent the day on a large field, returnly here at night.

Mayor T. P. Wallace, who has been on a summer trin to the springs for the past month, returned home last night, and to-day returned his official duties, the county of the past month, returned home was officiently filled by acting Mayor W. S. Embercy, recorder of the City Council.

Judge Lewis Expects to Retire By the First of September.

THORP TO BE HIS SUCCESSOR

The District to Be Divided and New Judgeship Created.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., August 17.-Judge L L. Lewis, of Richmond, has assured his friends here that there is no string to the resignation he has offered as the United States district attorney for this district. He says that his resignation is intended to take effect the 1st of September, and that the President will embarrass him very much if he should expect him to hold the office longer than a reasonable time in which to select some other man. That is accepted as the candid and veritable statement of the situation, and therefore, Mr. R. T. Thorp, formerly & member of Congress from the Petersburg district, will be urged for the office. Mr. Thorp is an able lawyer and he has the confidence of the bar and the bench here. He has practiced in all of the courts and has demonstrated his familiarity with the methods of the State and the Federal courts, and as a general practitioner at the bar. It is noticeable how few able Republican attorneys there are at the bar Republican attorneys there are at the bar in Eastern Virginia, with the exception of Norfolk, where there are a dozen or more. There are a number of Republican attorneys in the western district of the State, and several at Newport News, but there are few or none in the other cities of the State. That fact and the fact that state, and several at Newport News, but there are few or none in the other cities of the State. That fact and the fact that no other attorney here will likely be considered as an applicant, make the chances of the appointment of Mr. Thorp almost a certainty in the event that Judge Lewis goes out of office. It is said that a new judgeahip will be created for Judge Lewis and to divide tha business of this district. There are but two judges in a territory here for an amount of business which neverywhere else in the country is done by three judges. That excess of business will be shifted so that Judge Edmund Waddill will have more time to attend to the important and increasing affairs of the Federal courts here.

VICTIM OF MONTHINE.

The case of Charles Lowery, charged with attempted assault on Rachel Winter, the three-yoar-old child of Max Winter, of Upper Church Street, was tried in the Police Court to-day. There was no evidence that Lowery did more than place the child in a horse manger upon hor face and then whip her with a switch. The defense introduced evidence to show that the defendant is a morphine and cocaine fiend, and that was at times is mentally incapacitated. It was further brought out that Lowery had once been before a commission of luney, and the court continued the case until August 26th, so that the defendant might be carried before the same commission.
